

Witness Says British Tricked U. S. by Policies

Connecticut Democrat Says This Nation "Double-crossed" by Anglo Alliance with Dictatorships.

APPROVAL WON

Chairman Vinson Wins Approval of Time Limitations on Further Testimony.

Washington, Feb. 24 (AP).—Representative Kopplemann (D-Conn.) asserted today Great Britain had "double-crossed" the United States by "going along with dictatorships."

Testifying against the proposed $1,000,000,000 naval expansion program, before the House naval committee, Kopplemann said Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain's action looking toward an agreement with Italy had made it impossible for this country to depend on Britain.

Another witness — Representative McGrath (D-Calif.) — suggested that England could not be blamed for looking beyond the United States for cooperation in view of the feeling in this country against entangling foreign alliances.

A third congressional foe of the proposed fleet increase, Representative O'Malley (D-Wis.), asserted 90 per cent of the propaganda for a bigger navy came from "perfidious alibion."

Instead of a big navy, O'Malley said this country needs gas masks, bomb-proof shelters and training for the civilian population.

"What's the matter with the heads of our army and navy when they have neglected this form of preparation?" he demanded.

Still other criticism of the naval program came from Representative Southoff (Prog-Wis.), who asserted this country's whole method of determining defense needs was "archaic."

He criticized President Roosevelt for failure to invoke the neutrality act against Japan.

10-Minute Testimony

The committee set today's session aside for House members but voted to limit the testimony of each to 10 minutes. Each committeeman was given two minutes to interrogate individual witnesses.

Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) won approval of the time limitations in an effort to conclude testimony this week on the projected 20 per cent naval increase. However, notice from Representative Church (R-Ill.) that he would assist on the committee subpoenaing Glenn L. Martin and other airplane manufacturers may prolong the hearing.

Church acted on a suggestion by Lester P. Barlow, Stamford, Conn., inventor, who said the nation's aircraft makers could furnish testimony which would change the whole military procedure of this nation's defense plans.

Including the $250,000,000 of additional relief expenditures, the deficit for the House of Congress except for Senate adjustments, the federal deficit is expected to reach $1,344,000,000 by June 30, the end of the fiscal year.

Sharecroppers Flee Flood

In an effort to save his household effects, a resident of the Red River lowlands of southwest Arkansas chopped a hole through the roof of his flooded home (top). A negro sharecropper is seen in the lower photo removing his family and all their belongings to higher ground as floodwaters of the Red River, eight miles west of Ogden, Ark., left hundreds homeless.

Catskill Mt. Mother Saves 3 Children; In Grave Condition

Catskill, N. Y., Feb. 24 (AP).—A mother who rescued three children when fire destroyed their Catskill Mountain home was in a grave condition in a hospital here today from burns and inhaled smoke.

Dr. Mahlon H. Atkinson said the mother, Mrs. Leonard Vining, had a "50-50" chance of survival. Mrs. Vining made her way through flames originating in the kitchen early yesterday to the bedroom directly overhead in which her children were sleeping. She led Leonard, Jr., 7, and Gilbert, 5, and carried Burdette, 3, in her arms, collapsing outside in the arms of her husband.

Dr. Atkinson said the husband had built a wood fire in the kitchen stove a few minutes before the farmhouse, at Maplecrest, 25 miles from here, caught fire.

Leonard Vining is a first cousin of Scott O. Vining, of Port Ewen.

Pershing Losing In Fight Today

Tucson, Ariz., Feb. 24 (AP).—Physicians attending Gen. John J. Pershing said today the world war commander, veteran of many campaigns, was losing ground in his critical illness.

An official bulletin from the sick room shortly before 1 p. m. (Noon, EST.) said the general is "definitely weaker and somewhat apathetic."

"This may be only temporary or it may presage more serious consequences," said the bulletin, issued by Dr. Roland Davidson and Lt. Col. S. C. Narietta.

"General Pershing is not as well this morning as he was yesterday," the bulletin began. "He had a restless night and while he is free from pain, he is definitely weaker and somewhat apathetic."

"While there is no heart failure his physicians are not fully satisfied with his heart condition."

Mardi Gras Week

New Orleans, Feb. 24 (AP).—Old Momus the Jester and his carnival Zany will roar into town for their annual funny business tonight. He will ride on a big float at the head of a long parade, and smile and blow kisses to the ladies, pretty and otherwise. His arrival will mark the beginning of Mardi Gras week.

Arkansas Toils Over Levees

Fulton, Ark., Feb. 24 (AP).—Fulton's fate rested today on the sturdiness of an eight-foot sandbag barrier and the whims of the turbulent Red river which registered an all-time high stage of more than 36 feet.

Some 50 river miles downstream the restless torrent blew out a levee, opposite Garland city to inundate 100,000 acres of rich farm lands, inhabited by hundreds of families. Skiffs were sent across the stream to aid those near the break.

The sandbag dyke here, thrown up by volunteer WPA workers, was patrolled by guards who alternately watched the river gauge and looked for weak spots. The bags took a terrific beating from the angry stream, which stretched to a width of five miles in front of the town. Normally its width is 250 yards.

Most long-time residents agreed that if the river rose any higher the community would be flooded, for the first time in 30 years.

Refugee congestion added to the tension. Many Fulton residents took to the hills, but faster than the partial evacuation was the influx of lowlanders driven from their homes. Churches were being utilized and a call went out for food, clothing and tents. Elsewhere in Arkansas flood tension subsided.

Senate Votes to Carry on 6 Of State's 7 Emergency Tax Laws to Finance Budget

Relief Recipient Refusing Work Would Face Jail

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 24 (AP).—An "able-bodied" public relief recipient refusing to accept paid employment would be classed as a disorderly person under a bill sponsored in New York's Legislature today by Assemblyman Fred S. Hollowell, Yates Republican.

Another measure, introduced in the Senate by Philip W. Williamson, Westchester Republican, would make it a misdemeanor for any state employee to contribute to a political campaign fund or to use his position to aid a political party.

Assemblyman William T. Middleton, New York Republican, who sponsored the bill in the Assembly, asserted that "the kick-back of wage racket is particularly felt in state and municipal departments during the months of political campaigns."

Other measures would provide for hospitalization of persons injured in automobile accidents who are unable to pay for such care.

Require a motorist to stop his automobile before crossing railroad tracks. (Senator Thomas C. Desmond, Newburgh Republican.)

Define as reckless driving the failure of a motorist to dim his headlights for an approaching driver. (Senator Desmond.)

Repeal the law requiring cities and villages to install parking meters. (Senator Mac L. Egbert, New York City Democrat.)

Eliminate registration fee for motor vehicles operated solely on farm or factory premises.

Provide that a woman applying for a marriage license must be a resident of the community for at least 30 days preceding the application.

Consolidate all statutes relating to public authorities created by the legislature with the exception of the Port of New York Authority, the Lake Champlain Bridge Commission and the Buffalo and Fort Erie Bridge Authority.

Prohibit installation of minimum monthly charges for telephone service in New York, all charges to be based on the number of out-going calls.

Provide for establishment by cities of local power authorities and for furnishing public utility service and the furnishing of bonds not exceeding a six per cent interest rate.

WOULD PERMIT PRESS TO ENTER HOSPITALS

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 24 (AP).—Newspapermen would be permitted to enter a hospital to obtain "statements" from patients under a bill introduced in New York's Legislature today by Senator Philip W. Williamson, Westchester Republican.

The measure exempted newspapermen from a proposal that persons attempting to obtain statements, statements or general releases from patients regarding personal injury would be guilty of unlawful entry.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 24 (AP).—Robert L. Ferguson, 22-year-old Toronto, Ont., youth who admitted to having committed a murder, was paroled on his own recognizance for a second time today by Judge Judge Frank Cooper. Judge Cooper set the hearing for March 19, to give the young man a volunteer counsel, Thomas F. Woods of Albany, an opportunity to deliver into Ferguson's claim that he may be an American citizen instead of a Canadian.

Two Trainmen Die

Friends of the fiery Protestant pastor, who is accused of disrespect and disobedience of the Nazi regime, expected he would be let off with a few months imprisonment, which he already has served while awaiting trial.

Dr. Townsend Plans a Plea to Supreme Court Instead of Going to Jail

Washington, Feb. 24 (AP).—Dr. Francis L. Townsend, who came back to the capital to serve a 30 day jail sentence for contempt of congressional committee, announced today he would appeal to the supreme court instead of going to jail.

The elderly advocate of old age pensions, stepped off a train here early today with the expressed intention of serving out the jail sentence imposed by a United States district court. But after conferring with his attorney, Elton Hanson, he issued a statement saying he would let his case go to the supreme court.

Explaining his change of attitude, Dr. Townsend said, "The principle involved is so tremendous, however, that I feel as do hundreds of my friends that this case should be fought to a finish."

"Being without funds to prosecute a further appeal, I have asked my counsel who have represented me up to now if they would be willing to carry on for me and they have agreed to do so because of the importance of the principle involved and their sense of obligation to a client. . . . They will now proceed to ask the supreme court to review the case."

His original decision to serve the sentence, he said, was prompted by his lack of personal funds.

McNutt's "Debut" Smacks Highly Of Hollywood Ritual

Washington, Feb. 24 (AP).—A new kind of political debut that smacked more of Hollywood than of Washington put Paul V. McNutt of Indiana before the nation today as a Democratic Presidential prospect for 1940.

The tall, tanned, former Governor who now is high commissioner to the Philippines greeted 3,141 men and women with a "how-do-you-do," a hand shake and a smile last night at a reception as sumptuous as any the oldest capital onlookers could remember.

The party drew almost as many Congressmen as a Democratic caucus. Two cabinet members—Attorney General Cummings and Secretary Roger also passed down the receiving line.

Absent, however, was Senator Frederick Van Nuys, of Indiana, who is conducting an independent campaign for reelection after breaking with the McNutt organization.

McNutt, 46, wearing formal afternoon attire of frock coat and striped trousers, stood with his host, Senator Sherman Milton of Indiana, and Mrs. Milton, in a high-ceilinged room of blue and gold. Flood lights beat down upon them. A movie cameraman ground away at his machine in a nearby corner.

$1,800 Feast

From the receiving line guests went to a Washington hotel's main ballroom where an $1,800 feast of delicacies covered a table 48 feet long and nine feet wide. Decorations ranged from a centerpiece of gladioli, snapdragons, lilies and pussywillows to red, white and blue candles two feet high.

Visitors loaded their plates with such tidbits as mousse of pheasant, patisserie viennoise, and something the maitre d'hotel called "vol au vent fin de siecle" small pastry shells stuffed with chicken salad.

The entire affair was estimated by those who made the arrangements to have cost about $3,500.

The Indiana's backers expressed elation over the outcome of the unprecedented venture of presenting their "favorite son" to national political society two and a half years before the election.

Action on Lehman's Proposal for Retention of Fourth Cent Gasoline Levy Postponed Until Monday by Senate.

ON TO ASSEMBLY

All of Measures Go to Assembly Where Their Passage is Expected.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 24 (AP).—The Senate voted today to continue six of the seven existing emergency taxes for another year to finance Democratic Governor Lehman's already adopted $29,261,000 budget.

Action on the governor's proposal for retention of the four-cent a gallon gasoline impost was postponed until Monday night at the lack of sufficient Democratic votes to assure its passage. Twenty-two votes are required for approval.

All of the measures went immediately to the Republican-controlled Assembly, where consideration is expected next week.

Included in the approved revenue raising program was the proposal for continuance of the two per cent impost on gross receipts of utility companies, which was opposed by his committee.

Reduction Discussed

Leaders for several hours discussed a possible reduction in the levy, but finally reported it for a vote in the original form.

None of the measures received unanimous approval, four Republicans opposing one proposal and two Republicans casting negative votes on the other two.

Repeal of the utility tax, the approved program call for continuing the levy.

An increase of one and one-half per cent (from 4 1/2 to 6 per cent) in the franchise levy on business corporations.

Four per cent tax on net income over $5,000 on unincorporated business.

A three-quarters of a cent increase (from three-quarters of one cent to one and one-half cents) in the transfer tax on stock shares selling at $20 or less, and the one cent increase (to two cents) on shares selling above that figure.

A 25 per cent increase in the graduated tax on estates.

The "2100" tax on personal income, which is one per cent of the net personal income, with the usual personal exemption of $1,000 for unmarried and $2,500 for married persons, and $100 for each dependent.

The negative votes were cast by Senator Earle Warner, Thomas C. Desmond, Walter W. Stokes and Philip Williamson.

All of the emergency impost, except the utility levy were first enacted in 1933.

Czechs Will Fight

Praha, Czechoslovakia, Feb. 24 (AP).—Czechoslovakia is prepared to fight to maintain her sovereignty, she said. France would come to her aid if the necessity arose. Vast fortifications along her borders, industry prepared for a war time basis, and facilities to feed the population in wartime—these are Czechoslovakia's defense program. It is based on the idea that the nation first must defend itself because effective help from allies could not be made available quickly.

Spanish Insurgents Gain

Hondaje, France, at the Spanish Frontier, Feb. 23 (AP).—Combined land, sea and air attacks have carried Spanish insurgents toward the government's Mediterranean seaboard strongholds.

The movements, following the fall of strategic Teruel on the eastern front, threatened to develop into the decisive action of the Spanish civil war.

Military dispatches said insurgent troops drove eastward, warships ranged the coast, and planes roared over cities behind the lines after a triple action yesterday brought occupation of Teruel, sea bombardment of Sagunto and

Valencia, and air raids on coastal Barcelona and Tarragona. While insurgent Spain hailed Teruel's fall with great celebrations, government troops hastily formed lines between the city, 160 miles east of Madrid, and the coast.

The government announced that insurgent warships and government planes engaged in an air and sea battle yesterday in which two insurgent vessels were believed to have been disabled.

The battle started after Valencia and Sagunto were shelled by four insurgent ships. The government reported heavy property damage and one dead in the bombardment.

Tyler Verdict Upheld on Appeal

The record in the case recently filed in the office of the clerk of the Supreme Court at Kingston at the conclusion of the trial held at Kingston in May, 1937, has been upheld on appeal taken to the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court.

The complaint indicates that on the evening of November 5, 1935, Frank D. Tyler, Jr., of Phoenixia, was riding at the invitation of George Conway, of the same place, in an automobile owned and driven by Conway. At around midnight at the junction of the Woodstock-West Hurley Road with Route 28, which runs from Kingston to Phoenixia on the north side of the Ashokan Reservoir, the car failed to make the turn, ran into the bank, and Tyler, the passenger, sustained certain personal injuries for which he brought suit against the driver of the car.

The testimony rendered at the time of the trial at Kingston developed that Tyler, a local guide and carpenter, had been working all day at the election board at Phoenixia and at about 10 o'clock accepted an invitation to ride with George Conway. The two men were alone in the car and went from Phoenixia to Big Indian and then turned around and came back through Mount Pleasant and Woodstock. They were on their way to Kingston when the accident occurred. Tyler testified that the car, instead of making the turn, ran directly into the bank as the result of which his head went through the windshield, one of his ears was cut and he sustained a broken bone in his right hand. His injuries were attended by Dr. Snyder of Kingston and later, after return to his home at Phoenixia, his hand was dressed by Dr. John C. Gross and a splint was applied which Tyler continued to wear until February 13, 1936.

On the trial, testimony was rendered by Frank D. Tyler, Jr., the plaintiff, Dr. John C. Gross of Phoenixia, Harvey Clancy and George Conway, of the same place and by George M. Beekman of Shandaken. The jury which heard the case rendered a judgment in Tyler's favor in the amount of $800.

Appeal from this verdict was taken to the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court on behalf of George Conway and it was urged before that court that the plaintiff, Tyler, had contributed to the cause of the accident because, until collision was practically inevitable, he had not warned the driver, Conway, of the turn toward which they both were traveling. Cases were cited on behalf of the appellant in which recovery had been denied because the passengers in those cases had not taken certain steps to avoid the accident of which complaint later was made. Conway, by his attorneys, practically admitted that the car was not carefully operated at the time and place in question but still it was insisted that had Tyler done something to avoid the collision he would not have sustained his injuries. Tyler, on appeal, contended that there was no obligation on him to take any steps to avoid accident in view of the fact that both he and Conway were experienced drivers and nothing had occurred on the trip by reason of excessive speed, careless driving in negotiating the turns or any skidding of the car to arouse in him any apprehension as to Conway's ability properly to manage the automobile.

The decision of the Appellate Division at Albany is important as defining the respective rights

Tongue, Teeth Have to Do With Voice, Word Sounds

There is a definite relationship between many speech defects, dental abnormalities, and various conditions in the mouth. Voice or word sounds are produced by a certain position or relationship of the hard and soft palate, teeth, cheeks and lips, with the tongue and the passage of expired air from the lungs. A change in the volume and resonance of expired air, is varied by the larynx.

The development of vowel sounds requires only the opening of the lips with a slight tongue motion. Consonants require somewhat more complicated movements of the lips and tongue and are named according to the part of the mouth used in their formation, namely, dental, lingual, nasal, guttural and labial.

A number of mouth conditions affect speech habits very noticeably, according to a writer in the Detroit News. The overshot jaw is a very common cause of speech defects. The projection of the upper anterior teeth prevents good articulation with the lower anterior teeth.

The undershot jaw also affects the speech habits through changing the relationship of the tip of the tongue to the teeth. In both cases it is difficult for the lips to shape properly the sound or stop it at the right moment. The resulting air leak in the sound slurs or removes much of the tone sharpness.

A high arched palate, missing teeth or spaces between the teeth, an open bite, cleft palate, lack of normal motility of the jaws, the abnormal position of various individual teeth, and other dental conditions of a similar character cause faulty sibilants, leakage of air when sounds are made, and difficulty in making sounds.

Metal and Rubber Alloy Is Perfected by German

Berlin.—A new alloy called "Schwingmetall," made of metal and rubber and joined by a vulcanization process, has been discovered by German technical experts.

The alloy, it is said, can be used in the manufacture of china, as a ready shock absorber when used in bedsteads; shipbuilding, to lessen vibration caused by propelling machinery; elastic couplings of great simplicity and safety, and rubber springs for lorries.

With the help of the alloy, vehicles running on rails can be fitted with rubber-sprung wheels, the tires being held to the wheel with rubber rings. Through this method rail vehicles run silently even on curves.

Sailors' Girls Wear Souvenir Garters

Durban, South Africa.—Many South African girls are wearing souvenirs of the British navy in the form of garters bearing names of units of the fleet. As sailor aboard the Amphion, which recently visited Durban, is responsible for the new fad. He made the garters out of tatty ribbons and sold them to his mates, who gave them to girls.

France used her prestige and diplomacy after the World War to force an "iron ring" of armed and allied nations designed to keep Germany under control.

By 1925 the ring was almost complete. It consisted of the Little Entente nations plus Poland, Russia and Belgium. Britain stood aloof.

Now in 1938, Germany is bulled by no nation and the iron ring is her own. Only Czechoslovakia and Russia stand with France against Germany's expansionist career.

Germany is linked closely with Italy and the influence of these two nations is felt strongly in Hungary and, now, Austria. Danzig is in the Nazi camp. Belgium has declared herself neutral. The Nazi-Fascist influence is strong enough in Poland, Rumania and Yugoslavia to make their positions at least doubtful.

HEAD OF WALL ST. "Ulster County's Shopping Center" KINGSTON, N. Y.

Japanese chemists are experimenting with various cellulose sources in an effort to free the country from the necessity of importing wood pulp, greatly needed for Japanese rayon and paper industries. Experimenters are working with broadleaf trees, rice straw, bagasse, reed, mulberry bark and soybean husks.

From Chile comes similar news.
A cellulose plant has been set up at Valdivia, in southern Chile, where 8,000 acres of forest have been purchased for exploitation by up-to-date methods. The Chileans have been helped by German experts. Production on a commercial scale is expected to start within a year. As soon as Chile's own requirements are met, cellulose is to be exported.
Several South American countries, it is said, have already made inquiries about it.

Here is chemical and industrial enterprise which may greatly benefit the countries immediately concerned but which will not be welcome news to the countries from which the Japanese and Chileans formerly procured their pulp and cellulose.

Any country has a right to make all the things it wants instead of buying some of them from foreign lands, but is the plan sensible in the long run?
Any householder has a right to lick to his wall, his candles for lighting, his own land for the food he eats, his own sheep and his own skill for his clothes, but he prospers more and has more of the necessities and comforts of life by following a different system.

LAND OF A CHEAP CURIOSITY

The Wallis Warfield Museum in Baltimore has closed its doors, for the simple reason that it wasn't getting enough business to keep it going. At the height of the country's emotional spree last summer, when the ex-king married the American woman, patrons flocked to the little old boarding house and cheerfully paid $1 apiece for the privilege of gazing at a cook-stove and other articles of furniture which once belonged to the Warfield family.

The excitement waned soon.
The price of admission dropped to forty cents, then twenty-five cents. At last it dropped to nothing. Nobody appeared who came to see the relics of the Baltimore childhood of the Duchess of Windor.

This seems to indicate a degree of common sense in the American people. There are museums which are still visited, shrines to great men and women before which old and young stand in tribute. But with all respect to the talents and charms of the lady who just missed being a queen, there really is no reason why the household goods and the former home of Wallis Warfield should long attract paying visitors.

RADIO REFORM

That May West episode seems to be serving a good purpose and clearing the air. Or at least clearing it. The radio industry, suddenly realizing that it was getting into the same fix the movies were in some years ago, now seeks the same remedy. The National Association of Broadcasters decides to get a "dictator" after the style of Will Hays.

That is obviously a good move.
It is even more necessary for radio to be clean than for films, because the radio programs come right into the home. While radio has made enormous technical and artistic gains, a good deal of air comedy lately hasn't been exactly Sunday School stuff. Without being too fussy, there is room for moral improvement. As Senator Wheeler of Montana tells the radio people:

It is true many of your programs are excellent, but you have not yet learned to keep all the cheap and mediocre things off the air. I refer to those offerings of old-time stage comedians whose stock in trade is the double entendre or downright snout.

When this matter has been attended to, there will still be some broadcasting sins to overcome.
The program performers are usually better than the commercial announcers. Some of the latter act like aerial cave men. In otherwise beautiful programs, they often assail the ear with such loud and fierce insistence that listeners may be badly hurt as, in desperate self-defense, they leap across the room to shut out the radio.

VACCINES FOR COLDS

Some years ago a survey was made from the northeast to southwest part of the United States (from Maine to California) to see just what effect the weather had in causing colds.
Taking a strip of territory some miles wide, it was found that at certain seasons of the year, Fall and Winter, the number of colds in California was as large as in Maine.

Now it is not as cold in California as in Maine, so that cold weather, in itself, is not a cause of the common cold.
On returning from summer cottages it is the "usual" thing for many individuals to develop head colds. It is agreed that it is the leaving of the outdoors to live indoors whether in Maine or in California that is the cause of a great number of colds. It is not only losing the outdoor moist, fresh, "sunshined" air, but breathing the still, dry, dust laden air of the indoors that irritates the lining of the nose, throat, sinuses and bronchial tubes. And this irritation (cold) may extend down into the lungs and cause bronchopneumonia and pneumonia itself.

It is also now known that certain foods can cause head colds just as these same foods may cause asthma, hives, and upset of the stomach and intestine.
You are reading and hearing much about getting vaccinated against colds, just as one is vaccinated against small pox, hay fever, diphtheria, and scarlet fever.
What about the vaccines for colds? Will they prevent colds?

Dr. L. D. Bristol, New York, in the American Journal of Public Health gives results of treatment of standard stock (cold) vaccines.
In six different groups of factory workers (totaling more than 19, 000). The time over which this treatment against the common cold was available varied from seventeen months to five years.

"On the whole the study shows an apparent reduction in the severity of the attacks, their length, and complications arising from colds."

This is encouraging in that the colds were less severe, didn't last as long, and there were fewer complications—sinusitis, bronchitis, pneumonia and bronchopneumonia; but the number of cases in individuals was not lessened in number.

It would appear then that as a "part" of the treatment for colds, vaccines have some value.

Canada's Drouth Is Laid to Recession of Glaciers

Toronto, Ont.—The climate of Canada was hotter than the tropics 400,000,000 years ago, according to Madeleine Fritz, of the Royal Ontario Museum of Paleontology, and now an age of drouth is foreseen by Dan McCowan, Canadian naturalist.
Dr. Fritz says that between three hundred and four hundred million years ago coral reefs abounded on the southwestern fringe of Ontario, and sponges lived in the seas over Hamilton; sea lilies, a kind of shellfish, flourished on the present site of Peterborough.
The prairie provinces, about the driest place in the Dominion were a great inland sea 50,000,000 years ago, she theorizes.
McCowan blames the recession of Rocky Mountain glaciers for drouth conditions in western Canada. "If the glaciers keep on receding in the next fifty years as they have in the last half century the rivers will be nothing more than rivulets," he believes.

EMPIRE FOR A LADY

SYNOPSIS: Our love for a young English girl has kept my uncle, James Clyde, and myself (Paul Thorne) in tropical Balin-gong through a Dyak revolt and Miley defeat. Christine Forrester, visioning a great empire here, has made Clyde rich. Rentenong, the sultan's representative, arrives to continue the destructive government of the Malays. Simultaneously, a head-hungry Dyak tribe rebels. When I suggest that Christine leave the island, she is deeply hurt. "Are you going to marry James Clyde?" I ask impulsively.

Chapter 33 Jungle Campaign

CHRISTINE was silent for so long that I thought she was not going to answer me. "No," she said at last.
"Then your part of the work is done. James Clyde will go on with this. I know him well enough to know that he does not let go. He's a worker—he's willing to murder himself with work. He'll push this thing further than either you or your father ever dreamed."

"But—you don't want me here."
"You must know this—you'll see it yourself if you think about it; the time is coming when you're going to do Clyde more harm than good—and it's coming soon. This is a lonely job, meant for lonely men. It will be 20 years before Balingong is a fit place for a white woman to live in. If you leave now he may be able to forget you. But if you don't it will be too late for that. It may be too late now."

"She said, 'Paul, I was born in Burma and raised in Singapore. I can live any place in the world.
You say that I'd go away he might forget me—and I suppose in that you're speaking for yourself. But I am not at all sure I'm ready to be forgotten."

I was silent. Under other circumstances this girl might have been my own; she might have shared everything in my life. I knew that as certainly as I knew up from down. And another thing I knew much too well for my own good was that no other woman in the world would ever do in Christine's place.

I wanted to tell her this. She was so close to me that I could hear her breathe, and it seemed incredible to me that she could not read my thoughts. But I must hide from her what I felt. I bit my tongue until I bled, and then I knew that she was standing on my face. She laid her hand upon my arm.
"Paul, do you think—why, you have a chill!"

"Just a touch. It won't bother me on the water."
"You can't go up that river if you're sick. It's out of the question for you to take the Tanyalang riflemen out, if you have a fever coming on!"

"I'm going up the river. I'm going up thousands of feet before we're through here. What worries the hell out of me is leaving you here in Balingong. It'll be a whole lot easier for me, and for Clyde, and for all of us if you will take the Avon and get out. Go to Singapore—go to England. Go anywhere where a man can feel you're safe for a while."

Her words came so faintly that they were hardly more than breath. "Enggan mati; credai mati."

I had enough Dyak by now to know that native saying: "Stay, and die; run away and die too."
I was breaking my own heart, but I had to go on. The one thing that mattered more than anything else was that Christine was not safe, and could never be safe in this infernal river.

"You're going to have to stop thinking about yourself," I said.
Heaven knows we have enough to contend with here, without having to take double precautions.
Right now the Tanyalang ought to be back in their own villages, driving their people into planting somewhere. But Clyde will never let them go while you're here."

A Kiss
SHE was utterly still; I could no longer hear her breathe. I was hurling Christine because she had to be got out of that fever river, and there was no other way to do it.

"Paul, do you mean that?"
"Look at yourself, Christine."
She drew a long breath, and there was a quaver in it like the quaver in the drifting firelight above the Siderong.
"All right, I'll go, Paul."

I took with me 50 Tanyalang riflemen, 200 Dyak hand-to-hand fighters, three of our Linkang seamen to support the idea that this was a white man's expedition, and Blair. We set out in 18 paddle-driven barges, without sail.
My uncle came down to the beach to shake hands with me as we got our boats into the water in the dark. He said, "Goodbye, boy.
I guess you know I'd give something pretty to be in your place."
At the last minute, as I was about to step into my bankong, Christine pulled down my head and kissed me. Even by the reddish light of the torches I could see that she was very pale.

Can Clyde's will alone save off defect? Continued tomorrow.

Historic Churches of Ulster

(In conjunction with the Ulster County Apple Blossom Festival, May 6, 7, 8.)

Trinity Church, Saugerties

The foundation for the establishment of Trinity Church of Saugerties was begun in 1925 when Henry Barclay arrived in the village, constructed an English type mansion on the banks of the Hudson river which he named Ury, and there with the assistance of his wife, began the habit of gathering the people of the vicinity together on Sunday for the purpose of worship. These services were so well attended that in 1931 a rector, the Rev. Reuben Sherwood, was called, and in the month of February, Trinity parish was organized. It was incorporated in August of 1931 as "Trinity Church, Ulster," for in that year the name of Saugerties was incorporated as "Ulster" instead of the old Dutch name which it now bears.

During the pastorate of the Rev. Dr. Robertson, many changes were wrought in the interior of the various numbers, and in 1875 the present parish house was constructed.

In 1880 the Rev. Thomas Cole took over the duties of rector and remained in that capacity for 40 years until his sudden death in November 1919 while he was delivering an address to the high school pupils. From 1919 to 1926 the church was served by three different pastors, and then in 1926 the Rev. Emory Lewis Howe was called to the pulpit.
The Rev. Mr. Howe remained as rector until his death in 1934 when the present rector, the Rev.
William T. Renison was called to Trinity Church.

For over a century, the Trinity Church of Saugerties has served a flourishing community, and today it stands as a fitting memorial to the zeal and endeavors of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Barclay and those early citizens who recognized a need of the community and then took the necessary action to bring about the erection of a church.

attack of intestinal flu.

ment for a traveling tumor as so's mother, Mrs. George Gosnoon.

Mrs. Irene Andrus, teacher of Hubbell Hill school, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Armstrong, Sr., at Saugerties.

Several local cauliflower growers travelled to Halcottville on Friday evening to attend the annual banquet and meeting held in the Grange Hall. After a roast turkey dinner the Delaware county agent, Clarence S. Denton, of Walton, entertained with a movie of local cauliflower growers. The film was taken last year at the time of setting and treating plants. Another very interesting movie was shown in regard to how certain elements are acquired which are necessary for more healthy plant growth, which was shown by Mr. Sullivan, a representative of Natural Chilean Nitrate.

Mr. and Mrs. Cedric Kittle of Bovina were calling on relatives in this place on Wednesday.

of Andes, was a caller in this place on Monday.

Offers Course In Religious Drama

Offers Course In Religious Drama

One of the interesting and helpful courses to be offered in the Kingston Standard International Leadership School this year is a course in "Religious Drama and Pageantry." The instructor in this course will be the Rev. Russell S.
Gaenzle, pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Redeemer of this city, and president of the Kingston Ministerial Association.

The Rev. Mr. Gaenzle through the splendid religious dramas and pageants which have frequently been presented under the leadership at the Church of the Redeemer, has amply demonstrated his fitness for teaching this course.

After a brief survey of the history and development of drama within the church, the course will consider such practical problems as how to choose and present a play, how to direct and act, how to secure effective lighting and costuming, what plays are available for various age groups and for various seasons of the year.
The course will attempt to stimulate a more widespread use of one of the finest heritages of the church.
Classes will begin on Monday, February 25 at 7:30 p. m., and continue through the four following Mondays.

already adopted $386,364,000

Man About Manhattan

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK.—The first "hug-fed" of the Five and Ten Club was a barrel of fun. The excuses of the hobo camps gathered at Jack Dempsey's restaurant for a handout of mulligan stew, spud hobo barley corn, and coffee in the cans.

In case you don't remember, the Five and Ten is a gathering of men (positively no women allowed) who have tramped a minimum of 5,000 miles and now have an income of at least $10 a week. That's how the club gets its name.

Jim Tully came all the way from California for the dinner—and slept through it. He was still snoring at his hotel when the boys gave the secret sign and scattered into the night.

BUT, as I say, it was a great party. Dempsey himself was the host, but he was too busy applying the "hot-foot" to Jimmy Kellum, a sundry ex-hobo, and they were busy leaping up and stamping on imaginary fires that the food soon degenerated into a hilarious abaw-to-elbow confab around the mulligan can.

About the time second helping came around Ned Brown announced that a line of about 30 current hoboes, with sweaters and caps, were lined up at the door.
They had read of the dinner and wanted to participate. So Dempsey went out and told them that the dinner was tomorrow night. And when somebody asked him how he intended to handle them tomorrow, he replied, "Oh, we take care of them. We take 'em back in the kitchen and give 'em a few questions. And if they can't answer correctly, proving that they've been on the road, we give 'em a meal and a couple of bucks."

THERE were about 25 members at the first feed. In a week or so the secretary will have a list of men when the next call will come.
I'm looking forward to a lot of first-hand information from these old ex-riders of the rods. They ought to make good copy. Such as the fellow who bobbed up in our midst and tossed a half dollar at Dempsey's lap. None of us had ever seen him before.

"Here, Jack!" he drawled. "I hummed this off you in Sialkot, Mont., 15 years ago. You were training for your fight with Tor-my Gibbons. That half buck was me a room and a meal. And how'd it need it?"

Dempsey blinked in astonishment, and pocketed the half. This guy's name is Harold Young and today he is the head of a successful business firm in New York.

Sundown Stories

Final Leave-Taking

By MARY GRAHAM BONNER

"WE CAME back," one of the dear said, "to tell you how much we want to thank you. We didn't half tell you before."

"You mustn't
thank me," said
Willy Nilly.
"You know I was very delighted to have given you that food. We have so much this year. We are fortunate; and if you're hungry
again, another
winter, you
must come back
and see us."

"Thank you, thank you," said the dear.
"I won't keep you," said Willy Nilly. "I know you want to be off for winter parties of the country, but remember to come back again next year. We'll be ever so glad to see you."

Sweet Face wondered what was bothering Willy Nilly. Certainly he was inviting the dear back again next year—but not next year, he seemed to be in great hurry for them to be off.
Perhaps he had been planning to attend to his sticking-out, pointed ears which he wanted to have fixed some time.

The dear seemed ready to leave.
They, Sweet Face realized, didn't notice anything strange about Willy Nilly's manners. They thought he was wonderful, as indeed he was. But it was not his customary departure of guests.
The dear started off in another direction—to ward the Empty House.

"No, no, no," called Willy Nilly after them. "Not that way. I'm sorry but you mustn't, mustn't that way!"
"All right," answered the dear and left in the direction in which they had come. Willy Nilly watched them out of sight.

Tomorrow—"Tiger Eye"!

SAUGERTIES NEWS

TWO PROPOSITIONS TO BE VOTED UPON IN MARCH

The Village Trustees at their regular meeting on Monday evening adopted two resolutions whereby they will be submitted to the taxpayers of this village at the village election to be held Tuesday, March 15.

These important questions to be considered will be on the state-required improvements to the sewerage system which is estimated by the engineers' figures is $130,798.97, and should the taxpayers approve this proposition the WPA would provide $73,291.47 or 56 per cent. The village's share would be $57,507.50 or 44 per cent.

To meet the possibility of price raise in material needed the trustees have decided to ask the taxpayers for the sum of $65,000 as the village's share. The second proposition to be submitted is for the sum of $4,000 to care for all the trees at the curb line in the village which after the first year with dead trees removed and others treated and protected would not exceed the sum of $1,500 per year. The trustees last year had a survey made of all the trees and at the end found that 18 trees should be cut down, 320 needed spraying and 162 needed pruning and attention.

Townsend Club Holds Meeting

The meeting last evening of the Kingston Townsend Club was one of more than ordinary interest and was well attended.

The membership contest came to a close with the "Blues" captain, Margaret Overbaugh, leading by about 100 points. The defeated side, the "Reds," Captain E. Davis, will provide refreshments at the anniversary meeting in March. An apron party is listed for the same date.

A resolution was unanimously passed to the effect that the Kingston Townsend Club vigorously condemns and wholeheartedly protests against the unjust and un-American treatment accorded its leader, Dr. Francis E. Townsend.

Telegrams were ordered sent to President Franklin D. Roosevelt and to the United States Congress in care of Congressman Rockefeller of the 27th Congressional District. Also a letter will be sent to Dr. Townsend assuring him of the club's loyalty.

The club voted a contribution of $5 to Dr. Townsend's educational fund.

Connect Passion Flower With Lord's Crucifixion

The name passion flower arose from the resemblance of the floral parts to important implements of Christ's crucifixion, the resemblance being first pointed out by early Italian and Spanish travelers. Some of the early religious men saw in the corona the crown of thorns, others thought it the halo; to some of them the five stamens were the five wounds, to others, writes Henriks Hodge in Nature Magazine, they represented the hammers used to drive the nails, represented by the three-knobbed styles. Five sepals, together with five petals, stood for the ten apostles—Peter, who denied, and Judas, who betrayed, were left out of the reckoning. The innumerable mite-like leaves of some species are the pointing hands of the accusers, who held cords or whips, the tendrils.

Legend and superstition have long been associated with these beautiful blooms. In "Plant Lore, Legends and Lyrics," Folkard states that when the Spaniards first saw the rich festoons of this plant hanging from the branches of the forest trees they "regarded the magnificent blossom as a token that the Indians should be converted to Christianity, as they saw in its several parts the emblems of the Passion of our Lord."

If the delicate beauty of the flower had not been a source of satisfaction to man its fruit would certainly have been, for certain species supply succulent, berry-like fruits. In some cases these are highly perfumed and appear often on tables in the tropics.

Old Romans Superstitious

The superstition attached to breaking a mirror is one of the oldest in the world. George W. Simpson, Texas newspaper correspondent and author of a series of books on puzzling questions, says the ancient Romans believed it. They reasoned the health of a person changed every seven years and one's appearance, as reflected by a mirror, indicated the state of one's health. So, if the mirror were dropped and shattered, one would be due to experience seven years' ill health. But long before the Romans, man saw his image reflected in still pools, believed what he saw was a part of himself. So, if a jester tossed a stone into the pool, ruffled the waters and temporarily destroyed the image, man believed a part of himself had been injured.

Powwow of Indian Origin

The name powwow is Indian in origin. From the Algonquin language, it first meant a medicine man's ceremony for the cure of disease. That was before the white man and trouble came to the Indians. Then it became synonymous with a great dance, feast, or celebration held before a grand hunt or war expedition. Noise, shouts and confusion made up a powwow. Early Americans grabbed the word, gave it still another meaning. A political powwow to them meant a gathering of would-be statesmen and saviors of the nation, where sound and confusion often triumphed over anything of a deliberative nature.

A fireboat capable of throwing a tank car of water per minute at a nozzle pressure of 30 pounds per square inch is a recent addition to Chicago's firefighting equipment.

Albany Avenue Baptist Banquet

The first annual banquet of the teachers and officers of the Albany Avenue Baptist Sunday School was held last Monday evening in the church hall. The banquet proved a most enjoyable event in the history of the school. The picture above shows the new officers and some of the retiring officers of the school. Reading left to right, sitting, are Miss Ruth Koonz, Miss Anna Mae Decker, Miss Ethel Hull and Superintendent Evan J. Davis. Standing, left to right, George B. Matthews, W. W. Brady, the retiring superintendent; Bernard W. Healy, the Rev. Arthur S. Cole, pastor of the church, and R. H. Broughton. The Rev. Mr. Cole this year is celebrating his 27th anniversary as pastor, coming here in 1911 to take charge of the church.

Will Witness Brown Execution

Sheriff Abram Molyneux and County Attorney Roscoe V. Elsworth will attend the electrocution of Charles James Brown at Sing Sing prison which is scheduled for tonight. Brown convicted for the slaying of Isidore Handelman at Ellenville a year ago will pay the penalty for his crime some time after midnight. Under the provisions of the law invitations are extended to various officials by the warden of the prison and these officials act as witnesses to the execution.

County Attorney Elsworth has been designated to attend in place of District Attorney Cleon H. Murray.

SOUTH ROUNDOUT.

South Rondout, Feb. 24.—The fourth quarterly conference of the M. E. Church will be held on Thursday evening following the prayer service, and with the Rev. Mr. Chassey in charge.

Mrs. Henry Clair, a former resident of the village, had the misfortune to fall down stairs at the home of her son-in-law, Dr. Conde Lawing, of West New York, N. J., and suffered a broken hip and a broken arm.

Little Helen Barnum of Kingston is visiting at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Cole.

The Hercules bowlers are sponsoring a dance on March 4, at Spiny's, Port Jervis.

Mrs. John Shults of Saugerties was a guest at the home of Mrs. Cole on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Westley and daughter, Lillian, of Port Jervis, were supper guests at the home of his parents on Wednesday evening.

Laboratories which use X-rays and other scientific processes for detecting hoaxes are operated by two English galleries for the examination of "doubtful" works of art.

Jensen & Deegan In New Quarters

The undertaking firm of Jensen & Deegan today moved from its former location on lower Broadway, adjoining the Orpheum Theatre, to the former Deyo residence, 15 Downs street, where modern funeral parlors have been opened. Jensen & Deegan recently purchased the former Deyo property and have had it completely altered and modernized. Hereafter the firm will conduct its business from the Downs street funeral home.

Fate of John Wilkes Booth

John Wilkes Booth after he shot Abraham Lincoln was shot and mortally wounded by Sergeant Boston Corbett, of the Sixteenth New York cavalry, at 3:15 a. m., Wednesday, April 26, 1865, when he tried to escape from a burning barn on a farm of a family named Garratt, near Bowling Green and Fort Royal, Va., where he had hidden after his escape from Ford's theater. Booth's body was secretly buried in a grave under the stone floor of a cell in the arsenal side of Washington penitentiary. After four years the body was disinterred and reburied in the Booth family plot in Greenmount cemetery, Baltimore.

Finland's Name

The name Finland has nothing to do with the fin of a fish, as one might be excused for thinking at first glance. True, the country has a long seacoast bordering on the Baltic, but inland there are many lakes surrounded by marshes and connected by glistening streams and canals. Many years ago regions like this were called fens. Thus the little country in the northern part of Europe became known as fen-land, or marsh-land, and, as the years passed and people spoke carelessly, its name changed to Finland.

Dead Sea Salt Water Lake

The Dead sea is a salt water lake in southern Palestine in which the River Jordan terminates. It is forty-seven miles long, ten miles wide, has a maximum depth of 1,280 feet and an area of 340 square miles. Lying 1,290 feet below sea level, it is the lowest body of water on the earth. Having no outlet, its excess water is taken off by evaporation, estimated at about 6,000,000 tons daily. The salinity is 23 to 27 per cent, which is about five times that of the ocean. The economic value of the salts in solution is great, the principal ones being potash and common salt. The commercial exploitation was begun in 1931. No animal life can exist in its waters.

Gravestones Marked Bread

Count Rumford, the physicist who made "outstanding contributions" to culinary science, began his experiments on baking in ovens made from tombstones, according to a paper prepared for the American Chemical society. In 1782, the First Presbyterian church of Huntington, Long Island, was torn down and its timbers used to build a British fort in the graveyard by the order of Lieut.-Col. Benjamin Thompson, who later became Count Rumford. The gravestones were used in the construction of tables and ovens. Huntington residents, therefore, ate loaves of bread which bore on the lower crusts the reversed inscriptions of the tombstones of their dead friends.

Fish Scales Give Pearly Sheen

"Essence d'orient," the brilliant coating obtained from the scales of certain fish, is used to give plastics a pearly sheen, says Industrial and Engineering Chemistry. The particles are colorless, nearly transparent, extremely small, and possess a beautiful luster. When suspended in a protective colloid, such as a pyroxilin dispersion, the brilliancy is permanent.

Four Were Hurt In Two Car Crashes

Four people were injured in Kingston today in two automobile crashes. The first occurred shortly after midnight this morning when cars driven by John Ferguelli of East Kingston, and Henry F. Boehn, Jr., executive vice-president of the Beacon Air Conditioning & Controls Corporation, were in collision on Broadway at Chestnut street. Mr. Boehn sustained a bruised forehead as did Lawrence Collier, who was riding with him, while Mr. Ferguelli had a tooth knocked out.

Mr. Boehn and his staff, Messrs.

Collier and Hedman, had attended the local basketball game in the auditorium to obtain data on the ventilation of the auditorium on which the corporation is submitting a bid.

Woman Hurt Out

Shortly before 8 o'clock this morning one of the Rogers' bakery trucks of Sycamore street and a Nash sedan driven by Harry Smith, Jr., of 293 West O'Reilly street, collided at Hasbrouck avenue and Strand. Mrs. Smith, who was sitting beside her husband at the time, was hurled out as the car door swung open by the force of the impact. She sustained an injured back and head. Her head was cut by flying glass. Mrs. Clara Stokes of 87 West Union street, riding in the rear seat in the Smith car was also cut about the head with flying glass and sustained an injured arm. Both women were removed to the Kingston Hospital.

The bakery truck, a Ford, was driven by David Roth of 14 Sycamore street.

BIGGEST HUMAN CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Robert Wadlow, proclaimed by doctors world's tallest human at 8 feet 8 1/2 inches, celebrated his 20th birthday in his home at Alton, Ill. The 450-pound boy holds a cake his mother baked for him. On the right side sits a friend of average size.

SAYS HUSBAND DIDN'T KIDNAP HER

"I'll stand behind him," said this young mother in Denver, Colo., as authorities moved to return the father of her four children, known as "Frank Smith" to Orangeville, N. Y., on a charge of kidnapping her in 1929. Police said his name is Wesley Randall.

HE IS AN AIR FIREMAN TOO. THREE TIMES IN LESS THAN A YEAR HE HAS SAVED LIFE AND PROPERTY BY ZOOMING HIS SHIP BACK AND FORTH OVER CONFLAGRATIONS TO AWAKEN THE PEOPLE.

BULL MARKETS GET BIG

LOBSTER FOR JACK FEYE.
Remember the story of the man who, upon beholding a giraffe for the first time, exclaimed, "There ain't no such animal!"?

People passing the window of Jack Feye's bar and grill on Wall street have been making similar expressions of amazement at the sight of a huge 25 pound lobster on display there. The giant crustacean, bought expressly for Mr. Feye by The Great Bull Markets, has a spread of 44 inches from claw-tip to claw-tip. The claws themselves are mammoth affairs, the larger "pincher" being 18 inches around and powerful enough to easily crush a man's wrist, while the smaller one can readily hold a good sized grapefruit. The body itself is 21 inches around its larger part and 22 inches from nose to tail. The tail when spread fanwise, measures 10 1/2 inches across.

Such monstrous denizens of the deep are extremely rare, and this one is believed to be one of the largest ever seen in Kingston. He was caught by a steam trawler off the coast of Maine, being much too large for any lobster pot. Expert fishermen place his age at around 25 years.

Mr. Feye, when asked what he intended doing with the barnacle behemoth, estimated that the lobster would make salad enough for 80 people, and that such salad would be its ultimate fate, while the shell will be preserved and kept on display for the edification of those who just won't believe in the story of a lobster so large.

Aloes, Medicinal Plant
Among the Greek physicians, aloes was a most important medicinal plant. Centuries earlier, the idea of binding fresh plant leaves of various kinds on burns or other wounds was a favorite of Egyptian surgeons. Homer's heroes bound up damaged skin in the same way with herbs and oil. Roman expeditions found the savage Germans adept in the art. European settlers in America learned from the Indians precisely similar skills.

Some index of the popularity in the United Kingdom of darts—the game in which you throw little feathered darts at a target—is the fact that a wave of acute shoulder pains has been diagnosed as a "new malady," darts should.

★ How can you protect your family from the dangers of endemic goitre?

There is only one wise measure. The Council on Foods of the American Medical Association states: "Worcester Iodized Salt used daily as the only salt on the table and in cooking richly supplements the iodine of diets deficient in that element and thus helps to protect against simple goitre."

Don't risk your family's health and looks. Insist on Worcester Iodized Salt and only Worcester "Worcester Iodized" Salt tastes the same as Worcester Ivory Salt.

P. S. Be sure to ask for the Worcester Iodized 2 pound (32 ounce) round package. Worcester Salt Co., America's oldest refiners of pure salt, New York, U. S. A.

Railroad's Plight To Rotary Club

The plight of the American railroads was the subject of a brilliant and analytical discussion before the members and guests in attendance at the mid-week Rotary meeting in the Governor Clinton yesterday noon.

The speaker was employed by the New York Ontario and Western Railway, a system now bankrupt, and he stated that the public should take as much interest in present railway conditions as the owners and employees of the railroads. He also said that the unfortunate condition existing in the railway systems today could be cured by added business.

"What," he asked his audience, "is the reason for the railroad's unhealthy condition?" He answered this by saying that the public seeks low priced transportation and that the highways, the waterways and the airways have taken much revenue from the railroads due to certain conditions. These conditions sum themselves up to the fact that they might be termed free methods of transportation. The highways are built and maintained at the expense of the taxpayer, the barge canal in New York state is owned and free and the airways are to a large extent free because the government supplies the beacons, radio beams, etc., while most of the landing fields are owned municipally. Because of this freedom, such transportation systems can operate more economically than the railroads.

Mr. Hurley spent some time on the present agitation concerning the diversion of motor tax money to other fields outside the building and maintaining of highways in New York state. He said that any success along this line would be most unfortunate to the taxpayer because despite the diversion of these moneys the fact remained that the present license tax was inadequate. "Since 1920 and up to the present time," the speaker said, "it has cost the state over two billion dollars more to build and maintain highways than all the tax revenue derived from motor taxes. To pass an amendment halting any diversion would do more harm than good because the burden of local street and highway maintenance would come right back on the property owner and the land owner would be assessed however much more was required to make up the deficit."

The speaker was firm in the belief that the more even distribution of the money raised through motor taxes was of greater need than any fears over the diversion of motor taxes. The speaker described the idea of using motor taxes for the sole purpose of highway upkeep as "cockeyed". He said that if such a procedure was correct, then taxes from liquor should be returned to benefit only drinking people and this idea should be used in every type of special taxation.

HERE'S an amazing opportunity—to try sensational new Oxydol at a bargain price without risking a penny! To prove for yourself how Oxydol ends washday drudgery, saves worlds of time, gets white clothes 4 to 5 shades whiter—yet does it safely!

We can make this remarkable offer, because Oxydol is an utterly new soap discovery. It is the result of a patented process that makes soap far faster acting. And a miraculous new formula that makes mild, gentle soap 2 to 3 times whiter washing—yet keeps it safe.

Perfect by the Ivory Soap people at a cost of more than $1,000,000, Oxydol does these four astonishing things:—

First—Cuts washing time 25% to 40% in tub or machine. Saves hours on a big washing.

Second—Soaks dirt out in 15 minutes! No scrubbing or boiling needed. Even "tough" spots come clean and white with a few quick rubs.

Third—Gets clothes 4 to 5 shades whiter as proved by scientific Tintometer tests. These tests showed that, cup for cup, Oxydol soaked clothes as white in 15 minutes as less efficient granulated soaps did in three-quarters of an hour.

Fourth—Yet Oxydol is safe for every washable color, safe for hands. Even sheer cotton prints have come through 100 consecutive Oxydol washes, without any perceptible sign of fading.

What's more, Oxydol is extremely economical. Tests against popular package soaps show that, cup for cup, Oxydol gives 28% to 60% more suds—goes 1/2 to 1/3 again as far as even the most modern soap flakes!

Don't Wait—Offer Limited

Act now! Prove for yourself that Oxydol does everything we say. See why millions of delighted women have discarded old-fashioned bar soaps, flakes, chips and less efficient granulated soaps and changed to Oxydol. But don't delay. This offer is good only while your dealer's special supply lasts! Procter & Gamble.

ALL-STAR CAST BEGINS REHEARSING LINES FOR BIG 1940 POLITICAL DRAMAS

OPINIONS of Robert H. Jackson on the supreme court—but not his ideas about possible nomination as N. Y. governor—were aired at senate hearing on Jackson's nomination as the solicitor general of U. S.

BUILDUP of Paul V. McNutt, white-haired Indiana hopeful, started as soon as he reached U. S. from Philippines where he is high commissioner. His eyes are focused on the Democratic presidential nomination.

CZAR in his own ballroom, Mayor Frank Hague of Jersey City defies press attacks, lives well on a modest salary, bans CIO which he considers "Red." A Hague-staged turnout for Roosevelt visit amazed Demos.

'DON'T BE SILLY' snapped New York's peppery mayor, F. H. LaGuardia (right) when reporters asked about his—if any—presidential ambitions for 1940. But far from silly is nation's speculation over LaGuardia and his "racket"-busting district attorney, Thomas E. Dewey (left), whose overwhelming election on a Fusion ticket helped end an almost-mortal blow to Democratic machine that had long controlled New York.

WHITE HOUSE hopes of Gov. A. B. "Happy" Chandler are dim—but developing—say observers in Kentucky where he's lining up strength to take Democratic nomination from Sen. Alben Barkley.

ELOQUENT Glenn Frank disclaims presidential ideas, is active in G. O. P., once remarked that "The Republican party must be more faithfully expressive of the American spirit than Fascist program of New Deal."

HIS STAND was well clear by Gov. George H. E. P.A. (Pa.) who told striking miners there was no need for violence "as long as you have Roosevelt in Washington, a liberal congress and a governor like me."

Artists Asked To Exhibit Work

Woodstock, Feb. 24.—In preparation for the Ulster County Art Exhibition to be held May 6, 7 and 8 at Kingston, in connection with the Apple Blossom Festival, artists throughout the county who wish to exhibit are urged to send in their names and addresses to Mrs. Nancy Schoonmaker, chairman of the art committee, Woodstock. Notices then will be sent to these artists, giving the time and place for the entries to be judged. Work in oils, water color and black and white may be submitted. There will also be a showing of garden sculpture, properly set.

Members of the art committee as well as those artists who have been consulted have agreed that the exhibition should be a juried show. Four or five prominent artists will be asked to act as judges and will also select the work to be awarded a modest cash prize. The usual procedure will be followed: All entries should be sent in with shipping costs prepaid. Those accepted will be returned after the exhibition, costs prepaid; those rejected will be returned, costs collect. A gallery attendant will be in charge of the exhibition during the three days and every effort to effect sales will be made. No commission will be deducted.

Fred Illert Was Discharged

While it is illegal to have a punch board in a store and offer it for play, in the case of Fred Illert of Crown street, he did have a punch board but it was in a case in the store and not offered for play, and when he was offered money after a player had punched a hole or so in the board he refused to accept it. For that reason when the case came up in police court today for a trial Judge Matthew V. Cahill dismissed the charge after hearing the evidence.

Judge Cahill held that it is illegal to offer a punch board for play in any store where the player receives a certain prize after punching a hole in the board, or a certain amount of candy. In the Illert case, however, the punch board, the evidence showed, was in a glass case and was not offered for play and when a would-be player did offer to pay after punching a hole or so in the board Mr. Illert refused to accept any money.

The Commissioner Had a Big Day

Commissioner George Garrison of the Highland Road Commission had a strenuous day of it Wednesday, with a record of one red light passed, one violation of a restricted parking zone and then to make it perfect, he lost his glasses.

Mr. Garrison started out in the morning with some of the other members of the commission to go to Highland on business connected with the 9-W damage claims. He hadn't gotten far when one of the party said, "You passed that red light." George started to pull up, but on being advised that he might just as well go on, the damage was done, he did so.

Arriving at Highland the car was parked and the party went into one of the business offices. They had not been there long when an officer made his appearance and asked, "Whose car is that parked in the restricted zone?" It was George's car, of course. He went out to move it, remarking that he hadn't seen any "no parking" signs. When he got to where he had hitched his bus he happened to look up and discovered that he had got just about as close as he could to the sign, which was nailed on to a tree.

As to the glasses, he discovered their loss when he got back to Kingston. They were probably left in the office at Highland and, hopefully, have been recovered by this time.

Bucharest Rug Market Is an Open Air Attraction

The most important rug market of Bucharest, Rumania, from the viewpoint of travelers, is not in a shop or store at all, but in the open air along the river front. There large rugs are displayed to prospective customers on a long clothes-line arrangement, while smaller ones are hung from street lamps.

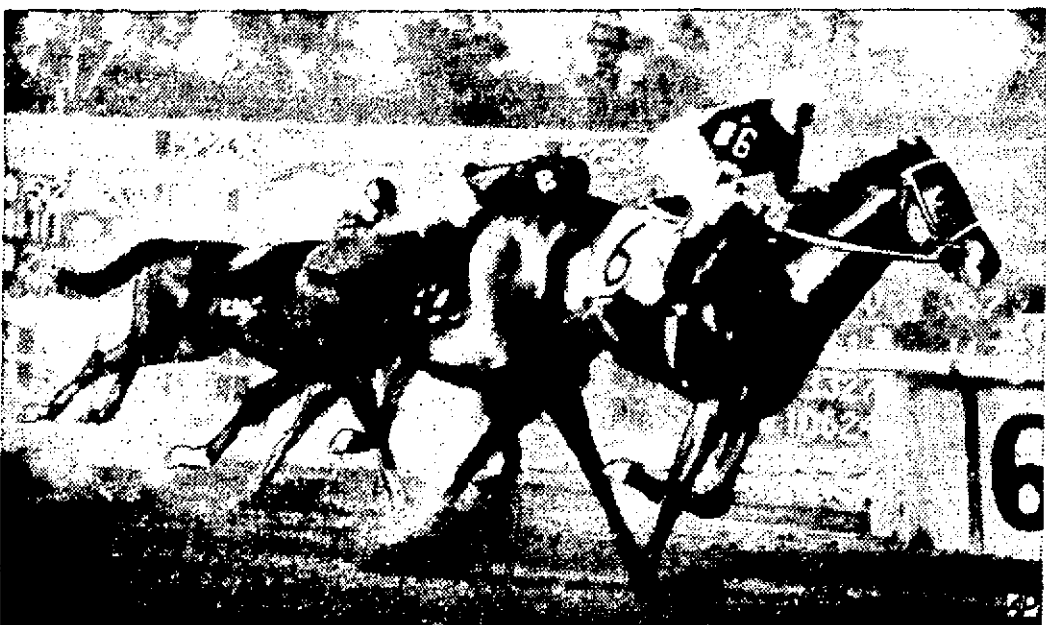

The designs are both brilliant and exotic, some of them even resembling the Navajo Indian rugs sold in America, and try as one may, one can not find the same pattern twice in the whole display. Most of the work on rugs is done when peasant farmers have nothing else to do. Then they spin the wool and weave it into the carpets and rugs for which the country is famous. In Rumania a good rug is considered too fine to be put on the floor; instead the housekeeper hangs it on the wall as a tapestry, or uses it as a covering for a bed or table.

A sight both in Bucharest and in other Rumanian cities is gypsy bands, with trained dancing bears. Each gypsy has his bear, and once the animals start to perform a crowd will gather like magic to see the fun. Gypsies who can not get a living in this easy fashion turn to the making of wrought iron work. Their work is very good, and one may see many examples of it ornamenting the best homes in Bucharest.

WHAT'S IN A NAME FOR A POOR SPELLER faced with array like Pietro Gobbo (left), Stanislaus Zbysko and Wlodek Cyganiewicz (right), who started milk diet upon arrival in New York? Zbysko, a "championship" claimant, says he's through with wrestling.

The Old Toboggan Slide

The pages of sports history in Kingston are rolled back today to the days of the Giddy Eighties by the picture shown above of the old toboggan slide on Andrew street. The increased enthusiasm in winter sports throughout the city and county has resulted in the request for a reproduction of the toboggan slide to show today's snow fans that the youngsters of the days of not so long ago also enjoyed their winter thrills.

In those days there were but a few houses erected on Andrew street, and the Benedictine Hospital on Mary's avenue had not been built.

There are living today in Kingston some of the older residents who recall the days of the old toboggan club and the slide and they are of the impression that it was discontinued and dismantled about 1896 or 1887.

The photograph from which the above cut was made was furnished by the Freeman by Russell Saul, a young man who recalled that as a boy he helped to haul the ice from the Rondout creek which was used on the toboggan slide.

The use of the Andrew street slide was confined to the members of the toboggan club and their friends. In later years there has been talk of erecting a toboggan slide in Hasbrouck Park, but it was found that there was not sufficient room in which to erect a slide.

Kingston's only toboggan slide flourished in the days of the horse cars, when there were not the modern conveniences that residents now enjoy in their homes such as electric lights and radios. Automobiles were not even dreamed of in the days of the Giddy Eighties, but the youth of those days undoubtedly got just as much kick out of life as the modern youth of today.

Three-Toed Sloth Defenseless

The three-toed sloth, of the tropical forests of the New World, is about the most defenseless creature in existence. It is poorly equipped to combat any enemy. It doesn't fight, hide or run away. It is an example of perpetual laziness and spends most of its time, when not eating leaves, hanging down from a tree branch grasped firmly by the three toes on each foot.

Many Climb Cathedral Steps

More than 100,000 tourists annually climb the 350 steps of Strasbourg cathedral to a platform 225 feet high from which a panorama of the city, Alsace and the Rhine valley unfolds. Hardier climbers continue to the tower, 578 feet above the pavement. Strasbourg has the second highest cathedral tower in France, surpassed only by that of Notre Dame of Rouen.
